If applicable, tuition refunds for students are given on a prorated basis. Students who withdraw after the start of the semester are entitled to receive a full refund up to the second week of class, a 50 percent refund up to the fourth week of class, a 25 percent refund up to the seventh week of class and no refund thereafter. Refunds are calculated on the basis of the day of withdrawal. If a student withdraws from a class after the add/drop deadline as a result of a serious illness or medical condition that arose during the semester, they may request a tuition credit by speaking with the Vice President for Academic Affairs.
